

Swedish Relaxation Massage Is a relaxing full body massage that incorporates traditional long strokes, kneading, rolling, vibrational and percussive techniques with the application of oil to reduce skin friction. Swedish massage improves skin and muscle tone, soothes tired muscles, breaks down scar tissue and increases circulation, which may reduce swelling from injuries and speed healing.